PREPARING THE RISING GENERATION

“Focus on those things that would help get the gospel of Jesus Christ down deep in their hearts” - Henry B Eyring

1. Keep the rising generation at the forefront of all that we do.
2. “Be with them, connect them with heaven, let them lead” -Douglas D. Holmes
3. Challenge the youth to learn how to Hear Him and seek His guidance.
4. Help the rising generation identify spiritual experiences.
5. Helping them feel and recognize the spirit of Temple Work by spending more time at the temple and in the temple.
6. Helping them feel and recognize the Spirit of Missionary Work by spending more time with the full time missionaries.
7. Help them have their own spiritual experience where they gained their own testimony by participating in daily spiritual activities at home.
8. Help them be part of a genuine group of peers that supported each other. Have quarterly multi ward youth activities.
9. Use existing tools and programs in a more intentional and meaningful way.
10. Improve focus on FSY, Stake YM and YW Camps, and Stake Youth Conferences.
11. Increase the quality of events not just the quantity of events.
12. Increase missionary firesides where youth can hear from recently returned missionaries and others their age.
13. Provide opportunities for the youth to be an investigator themselves and take the missionary discussions.
14. Increase sharing of missionary experiences in meetings, lessons, and talks.

“The youth today are among Heavenly Father's most noble spirits. They were among the stalwart defenders of truth and agency in the premortal world. They were born in these days to gather Israel through their powerful witness of the Lord Jesus Christ. He knows each one of them and knows their great potential.”
